SINGAPORE: President S R Nathan has appointed Bobby Chin Yoke Choong as a member of the Council of Presidential Advisers for a term of six years.

Mr Chin sits on the board of several companies and is currently the chairman of the Tote Board.

Temasek Holdings Chairman S Dhanabalan has also been reappointed as Council member for a term of four years.

Singapore Exchange Limited Chairman J Y Pillay remains as head of the Council.

The Council advises the President in the exercise of his custodial and discretionary powers. For example, the President consults the Council before he considers the budget of the Government and key government-linked bodies.
