

Xu Wan

MBA 2000

Financial Analyst

HP Asia Pacific

14 years multi-functional, multi-cultural and multi-dimensional experience in financial service, spend & cost management, project management and accounts & customer relationship management areas.

Leadership: Managed all disciplines, cross-functional and cross-cultural teams. Performed general manager role in start-up. Led multi-million US$ projects.

Performed roles in financial analyst, financial manager and project manager specializing in financial planning, P&L management, business evaluation, negotiation and deal structuring, internal control and project management.

Understand globalization and value diversity: worked for US, Singapore, Japan and China-based companies, and for the Fortune 500 leading company. Worked with accounts/customers from around the world and understood their different needs

Xu Wan is firm believer the following personal traits: Integrity; win-win and cooperation mindset; empathic communication and interpersonal skills; dynamic; passion for customers; willing to take on big challenges and see them through; accountable for commitment.